General Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions contained in this Tour Participation Agreement (the “Agreement”) govern the relationship between you (the “traveler”) and Vantage Travel Service, Inc. d/b/a Vantage Deluxe World Travel and Vantage Adventures (hereinafter “Vantage”). By reserving a trip, you agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. The Agreement outlines, among other things, our cancellation policy and certain limitations of liability. These terms affect your rights to sue, the governing law to be applied, and the jurisdiction and forum in which any suit may be heard.

The prices of your land tour or cruise/small ship tour (the “Original Price”) and the airfare for travel to/from the intended destination (“All-Inclusive Airfare”) are stated in the Vantage catalog and on our website. “All-Inclusive Airfare” includes airport transfers, fuel surcharges, and government taxes and fees. The prices advertised in each catalog are effective as of the publication date on the back cover of that catalog. At the time you reserve your tour, prices may be higher. For current prices, please see our website at www.vantagetravel.com. The price you pay is in U.S. dollars and is based on double occupancy, unless otherwise noted.

Please review and verify your booking invoice thoroughly and contact your travel agent or Vantage immediately if your invoice appears to be incorrect or incomplete. Vantage will make every effort to accommodate requests for reservations you with correct pricing.

Making Reservations

To reserve a trip, Vantage requires an initial deposit followed by final payment. The payment of a deposit for the tour shall be deemed to be an acceptance of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Changes to the terms of this Agreement can only be made in writing and signed by an officer of Vantage Deluxe World Travel and/or Vantage Adventures.

Please refer to the chart on page 2 of this Agreement for deposit amounts, final payment, and cancellation fees schedule.

For all tours, payment of your initial deposit does not guarantee the price of your trip. Participation in our SmartPaySM Discount Plan can save you up to 12% on your Vantage trip AND will ensure that the price of the land, cruise, and airfare portions of your trip will not increase. This includes 100% guaranteed protection against ALL additional taxes, fuel surcharges, and currency fluctuations, from the moment you pay in full under the terms of Vantage’s SmartPay Discount Plan. If you do not participate in our SmartPay Discount Plan, all prices are subject to change and may increase.

Please review and verify your booking invoice thoroughly and contact your travel agent or Vantage immediately if your invoice appears to be incorrect or incomplete, as it may not be possible to make changes later. Vantage cannot accept responsibility if we are not notified of inaccuracies within 5 days of sending out the invoice. In the case of billing errors, Vantage reserves the right to re-invoice you with correct pricing.

Vantage will make every effort to accommodate requests for reservations made after the final payment due date — but in this case you will be required to pay the full amount of your trip at the time of booking. Vantage’s Priority book- ings for tours departing between 90 and 21 days of reserving must be paid in full by electronic check at the time of booking. Priority bookings will not earn Vantage past traveler reward credits. Priority bookings cannot be combined with other credits, such as referral rewards, good will credits, past traveler credits, or other incentives. Past Traveler credits are not combinable with any offer.

Every effort has been made to produce pricing information accurately. Mistakes, however, do occur, and Vantage reserves the right to correct promotional or pricing errors at any time. Vantage also reserves the right to raise the Original Price and/or airfare in response to increases in government taxes or fuel surcharges until you pay in full, unless you are participating in the SmartPay Discount Plan.

Making Final Payments

Final payments are due 90-120 days prior to departure, depending upon the program. See the Deposit, Final Payment, and Cancellation Fees Schedule included in this Agreement for payment due dates. (It is better to refer to your invoice for the specific program’s final payment due date.) Please make checks payable to Vantage Deluxe World Travel or Vantage Adventures.

If final payment is not received by the due date, your reservation will be canceled and your full deposit, including Travel Protection payments and any air deposits or air tickets issues early (including applicable fees), will be retained by Vantage. Vantage is not responsible for canceled land, cruise, or air reservations in the event payment is not received by the final payment date. Payment in full is required at time of booking for reservations made within the final payment date of your vacation.

As stated above, All-Inclusive Airfare includes airport transfers and reflects all government taxes and surcharges. The remaining price of each trip (the Original Price) includes all applicable land, ground, and cruise/ship components. The Original Price does not include optional charges for laundry service; telephone and Internet usage; wine, liquor, or mineral waters; shore excursions; sightseeing trips; gratuities; or services other than those specified in the itineraries. Travelers are responsible for obtaining vaccinations as advised by your health care provider. The Original Price also does not include port charges or any other non-air government fees and taxes. These are identified separately in the catalog and on our website and will be either (a) billed as separate items on the invoice or (b) collected upon your arrival and/or departure from the applicable country.

Making Changes

Vantage understands if you need to change your plans. Most programs allow travel changes that affect destination, departure date, program extensions, and the like, provided that requests are made within 30 days of the booking date and more than 90 days from the date of departure. Any changes more than 30 days from booking date are subject to a $100 per-person nonrefundable processing fee. Airlines, hotels, or cruise lines may impose additional travel change fees, which are the traveler’s responsibility.

Passports and Visas

A valid passport is required for each person traveling on our international programs. Travelers are responsible for obtaining any required visas. If you are not a U.S. citizen and therefore are not carrying a U.S. passport, you must contact the appropriate consular office for entry requirements pertaining to your trip, as Vantage is not responsible for providing you with this information or documentation. Please ensure that your tickets and other travel documents bear your name exactly as it appears on your passport or you could be denied boarding.

Air Arrangements

In order to provide you with the lowest possible airfares, Vantage takes advantage of special contracted fares. These fares can be quite restrictive and carry cancellation charges imposed by the airlines ranging up to 100% of the cost. Therefore, you will be responsible for any penalties resulting from flight changes or flight cancellations made at your request after your flights are ticketed.

Vantage offers you your choice of airline and routing. All air routings are subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed. Vantage is not responsible if an airline cancels or delays a flight for any reason, including weather. If you are unable to make your departure, it is your responsibility to work with the airline on which you are ticketed to reach your destination. Vantage is not responsible for any additional expenses you may incur prior to joining your trip. Vantage will not provide any refund for portions of trips missed due to canceled or delayed flights.
flights. If an air schedule requires an overnight stay in a gateway city, Vantage can assist with hotel reservations as availability permits. However, overnights are at your expense unless otherwise specified in writing. Seat requests will be taken at the time of booking, but in most cases cannot be guaranteed by the airline or, as result, by Vantage.

FlightChoice: You may request alternate air travel arrangements through Vantage’s FlightChoice service for a $100 per person service fee. You are responsible for any additional airfare (which includes government taxes and fuel surcharges) charged for these alternate travel arrangements.

International and domestic air schedules are subject to change at any time. If you choose to make your own flight arrangements, Vantage will not be responsible for any loss resulting from delays, cancellations, or changes in international gateways or travel dates. We further recommend that you not purchase air tickets with high penalty charges for changes. Should you make your own flight arrangements and miss your international flight for any reason, Vantage can assist with alternate flight arrangements; however, you will be responsible for the cost of an alternative flight to your destination as well as any other expenses, including transfers to and from the airport, that you incur prior to joining up with your tour group.

All air routings are subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed. Vantage is not responsible if an airline cancels or delays a flight for any reason, including weather. If you are unable to make your departure, it is your responsibility to work with the airline on which you are ticketed to reach your destination. Vantage is not responsible for any additional expenses you may incur prior to joining your trip. Vantage will not provide any refund for portions of trips missed due to canceled or delayed flights. If an air schedule requires an overnight stay in a gateway city, Vantage can assist with hotel reservations as availability permits. However, overnights are at your expense unless otherwise specified in writing.

Deposit, Final Payment, and Cancellation Fee Information

Vantage realizes that most people who cancel their reservations do so out of necessity. Nevertheless, cancellations are costly to administer and involve dedicated staff time and communications costs. Therefore, all cancellations made later than 24 hours after booking are subject to a nonrefundable administrative fee of $300 per person. Cancellations made within 24 hours of booking will be subject to the same fee, unless your reason for canceling is due to the time of cancellation.

Cancellations and Refunds

is your rejection of these Terms and Conditions. This fee does not include airline cancellation fees or the cost of nonrefundable travel protection plans. There may be additional cancellation penalties associated with certain excursions or extensions. Please note, however, that reservations made after the final payment date are immediately subject to cancellation charges.

Cancellations must be in writing to be effective and include the reason for cancellation. If you need to cancel your reservation, you must call and speak to a Customer Service Representative.

Traveler substitutions are considered reservation cancellations and are subject to cancellation fees which may also include airline fees. Please note that we do not make any refunds for any unused portion of your trip. If your travel companion cancels and you are unable to secure another traveler, you will be considered a single traveler and subject to the single supplement charge. This may be a covered reason under certain travel protection coverage. Please refer to your specific plan for details. (Note that all refunds are processed within 30 days.)

Single Travelers

Vantage offers attractive Single Supplements on most tours. In addition, single cabins are available on most European river cruises and some small ship tours. Please ask your Vantage Travel Specialist for details.

Pay no Single Supplement on “Guaranteed Share” Dates (not applicable to optional extensions). When you request a roommate, you will pay just the per person, double-occupancy rate on select dates and select categories — whether we find you a roommate or not. Most Vantage escorted land tours, small ship tours, and European river cruisetours offer guaranteed share dates.

Roommate Matching Service. If you reserve a trip with Vantage for which roommate-sharing is available, and if you would like to share a twin-bedded room with another single traveler of the same gender, Vantage will do its best to match you with a roommate and will charge you only 50% of the applicable Single Supplement. If Vantage is able to match you with a roommate, the Single Supplement amount paid will be refunded after your trip.

Medical Issues: Tour Selection

So that you may enjoy your Vantage tour to its fullest, we recommend that you select a trip that is suitable to your physical capabilities. Certain tours require considerable walking, often on uneven or cobblestone streets. Many sites along the itineraries can only be accessed on foot and involve stairs and inclines. Embarking and disembarking riverboats and small ships may involve negotiating steep gangways. We cannot provide individual assistance to travelers with wheelchairs or other mobility devices, or who otherwise require assistance in walking, dining, or attending to other personal matters. In addition, we regret that a number of itineraries cannot accommodate wheelchairs or motorized scooters. Walkers and canes are permitted; however, you may find that your participation in certain tour features may be restricted. Upon request, we will endeavor to provide information regarding the specific accessibility features of a particular tour. If a tour is not feasible due to your specific physical limitations, please inquire about more accessible tours.

Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act (the ADA), Vantage endeavors to “reasonably accommodate” disabled travelers on domestic tours by providing, to the extent possible, access to ground transportation, lodging, and other places of public accommodation. However, the ADA does not apply to service providers outside of the United States. For these reasons, you are required to advise us at the time of booking or, if later, immediately upon your becoming aware of any physical or other condition that may require professional attention or the use of special equipment during the trip.

All travelers will be asked to complete a Passenger Information Form that includes space to identify any such conditions and the professional assistance and special equipment that may be required while on tour. Your failure to disclose any such condition, or your arrival at the place of departure with special equipment that cannot be accommodated on the tour, may result in a refusal to allow you to take the trip. In certain instances, this refusal may be at the direction of a third party, such as a river cruise or small ship operator. Should this occur, you will forfeit the trip cost, and we shall have no liability, financial or otherwise. Furthermore, the failure to advise us of any such condition releases
Vantage and all professional personnel from any liability related to such condition or its treatment. Whether taking an international or domestic tour, you must bring a capable traveling companion to assist you if you will have any difficulty attending to such basic needs as dressing, eating, moving about, or participating in safety drills. Neither the Cruise Directors nor the crew of any riverboat or small ship nor Adventure will be able to provide this care for you.

Vantage reserves the right to decline any tour participant whose condition, in our opinion, or in the opinion of a third party, such as a riverboat or small ship operator, may affect the health and safety of other travelers. Vantage is not responsible for the costs of any medical treatment you may require during the trip and thereafter. Under no circumstance is Vantage responsible for the quality of medical care, or lack thereof, you may receive while on the tour.

You must bring and be responsible for all necessary items related to your physical condition, including any special equipment that is permitted on tour. Because the tour accommodations and transportation facilities, including the riverboats, are not owned or operated in the U.S., they are not required to meet the standards established by U.S. law for disabled travelers.

Certain tour features, including third-party transfer services, hotel accommodations and other land excursion facilities, and certain trips, are not wheelchair or scooter accessible and may be difficult for disabled travelers. In particular, riverboats and small ships are not equipped with wheelchair- or scooter-accessible cabins, and therefore, safety reasons preclude allowing wheelchairs or scooters on board. If you have limited mobility, you may find it difficult to embark or disembark riverboats or small ships at certain times due to steep gangways and steps, particularly during low or high tide. Situations may occur in which you may not be able to go ashore at the desired time, and possibly not at all, in certain ports.

Furthermore, if a river cruise, small ship journey or adventure includes a land tour either before or after the cruise, it may not be possible to accommodate wheelchairs or scooters on the entire tour (even if the ship has the onboard capacity to do so) since as a general matter, accommodations and transfer services outside the U.S. are not handicap accessible. Please let our Reservations Specialist know when booking if you require the use of this equipment so that he or she can work with you to select an alternative tour.

For the safety of all concerned on river and small ship cruises, the captain or ship master will make the final determination regarding your ability to embark or disembark the vessel with or without the assistance of your equipment, taking into account all appropriate circumstances, including but not limited to, weather conditions, ship’s location, and your physical condition at the time.

Medical Information, care, and liability: All health, medical, or other personal services provided in connection with your trip are provided solely for the convenience and benefit of passengers who may be charged for such services. You accept and use medicine, medical treatment, and other personal services available on the vessel or elsewhere at your sole risk and expense without liability or responsibility of Vantage whatsoever. Doctors, nurses or other medical or service personnel work directly for the passenger and shall not be considered to be acting under the control or supervision of Vantage, since Vantage is not a medical provider. Similarly, and without limitation, all spa personnel, photographers, instructors, guest lecturers and entertainers and other service personnel aboard a tour shall be considered independent contractors who work directly for the passenger.

In connection with your trip, Vantage shall not be liable to the passenger for damages for emotional distress, mental suffering or psychological injury of any kind, under any circumstances, except for such attributable to passenger’s physical injury or as the result of passenger having been at actual risk of immediate physical injury proximately caused by Vantage negligence.

Responsibilities & Liability

Vantage reserves the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a member of any tour or to cancel or alter the tour without notice, in which event your sole remedy shall be a prorated refund for any unused portion of the trip. Vantage further reserves the right to remove any person from a tour whose comportment is disruptive to other tour participants, to Vantage representatives or to third parties involved in the tour. Should this occur, you will forfeit the trip cost, and Vantage shall have no liability, financial or otherwise. While we advertise small group travel of 18 to 28 travelers, we reserve the right to occasionally exceed that amount.

Vantage reserves the right to take photographic or film records of any of its trips, to obtain the same from fellow travelers or other third parties, and/or to use such photographic or film records for promotional and/or commercial purposes. By traveling with Vantage, you consent to the use of your image and likeness for these limited purposes. If you prefer that your photo not be used in any marketing activities, please notify your Cruise or Tour Director at the start of your tour.

The responsibility of Vantage, its affiliated companies, officers/directors, employees, sponsoring organizations, and agents is strictly limited. As a tour operator, Vantage organizes, promotes, and sells tour programs consisting of certain travel services, including surface, air, and water transportation, sightseeing excursions, and cruise/hotel accommodations, that Vantage purchases or reserves from various suppliers (collectively, “Suppliers”), Vantage does not own or operate any of these Suppliers. The Suppliers providing travel services for Vantage’s tour programs are independent contractors and are not agents or employees of Vantage. As such, Vantage is not responsible for direct, indirect, consequential, or incidental damage, injury, loss, accident, delay, or irregularity of any kind occasioned by reason of any act or omission beyond its control, including, without limitation, any negligent or willful act or failure to act of, or breach of contract by, any Supplier or any other third party. Some tours include visits to shops and merchants. Vantage is not responsible for any purchases you make during your trip, whether or not that merchant is part of the scheduled itinerary. By utilizing the travel services of the Suppliers, you agree that you will look only to such Suppliers in respect of any accident, injury, property damage, or personal loss to you or to those traveling with you, and that neither Vantage nor any representative of Vantage shall be liable.

Without limiting the foregoing, Vantage is not responsible for any losses or expenses due to delays or changes in schedules, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, defaults by any third parties, including Suppliers, mechanical or other failure of airplanes or other means of transportation, or the failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart on time. Vantage is not responsible for acts of God or force majeure events, sanitation problems, lack of medical care, sickness, weather conditions, strikes and other labor activities, acts of terrorism, acts of war (declared or undeclared), quarantines, embargoes, blockades, criminal activities, or any other act or event beyond the direct control of Vantage.

We reserve the right to modify tour itineraries and substitute hotels and accommodations without liability to Vantage. Included features may not be available for all departures. If a vessel is not able to complete the scheduled itinerary due to low water, high water, mechanical breakdown, or other reason, we reserve the right to modify the itinerary, which right shall include the use of hotels and motor coaches where necessary.

Additionally, Vantage may, for any reason, without prior notice, cancel a cruise; deviate from the scheduled ports of call, route and timetable; call or omit to call at any port or place or cancel or modify any activity on or off the vessel; comply with all governmental laws and orders given by governmental authorities; render assistance to preserve life and property; or change the date or time of sailing or arrival, change the port of embarkation or disembarkation, shorten the cruise or substitute a vessel or other transportation or lodging. Vantage is not responsible for any losses you may incur as a result of such cancellations or deviations. Vantage, at its option, may substitute accommodations of an equal or superior class or provide a full refund of the fare actually paid by you for such cruise, or substitute accommodations of a lower class and provide a refund of the difference, if any, between the booked class and the substitute class for such cruise. But Vantage shall not incur any other liability for failure to provide the reserved berth. Any partial refunds shall be calculated in accordance with Vantage’s typical business practices.

To the extent that Vantage is involved in booking air and/or cruise transportation for you, Vantage acts only as your agent. For all other purposes, Vantage does not act as an agent for any party whatsoever.

Vantage assumes no financial responsibility for any cancellations or delays resulting from invalid passports, visas, or other travel document requirements, or for tickets or other travel documents that do not reflect your name exactly as it appears on your passport. Vantage reserves the right to change the itinerary of the tour without prior notice. If the tour is canceled by Vantage for any reason, Vantage shall have no liability beyond the prompt refund of all tour participants’ payments received by it. The common carriers used are not responsible for any act, omission, or event occurring when tour participants are not aboard their conveyances. The cost of optional Travel Protection is not refundable.
Vantage reserves the right to change the departure date of any tour as well as to cancel a trip or extension that does not attain a minimal level of participation. If Vantage changes a departure date to a date within 14 days of the original departure date, cancellation penalties as described in this Agreement still apply should you subsequently decide to cancel. If Vantage cancels any optional extension for which you are booked, cancellation penalties as described in this Agreement still apply should you subsequently decide to cancel the base portion of your tour.

Safety and security: We provide tours in many countries around the world. You agree to assume responsibility for your own safety, and we cannot guarantee your safety at any time. Local conditions, including infrastructure, road conditions, medical care, safety and security, may differ significantly from those found in the United States. At any given moment there are also likely to be “trouble spots” in the world in terms of war, terrorism, crime, Acts of God, civil commotions, labor trouble, and/or other potential sources of harm. The United States Department of State and other governmental and tourist organizations provide information on foreign countries, including details of local conditions in specified cities and countries according to such agency’s perception of risks to travelers. We strongly recommend you obtain and consider such information when making travel decisions. We assume no responsibility for gathering such information or providing it to you. In the event that Vantage must cancel a tour due to global unrest, affected passengers will be granted a complete future travel credit for the amount paid for the tour.

Vantage will not refund any amount paid by any tour participant who must or chooses to leave a tour prematurely for any reason. Vantage will also not be responsible for the lodging, meals, return transportation or other expenses incurred by such tour participant.

Your Agreement
This relationship shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts without consideration of the conflict of laws principles thereof. Venue for all disputes arising under or in respect of this Agreement shall lie before any court of competent jurisdiction located in Boston, Suffolk County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Any action for damages, whether arising from contract, tort, or otherwise must be brought within one year from the date of departure or shall be irrevocably waived. The sole exception to the foregoing shall be for any claim or dispute arising out of or relating to the ownership and/or operation of any riverboat or cruise ship, for which the law and the venue shall be in accordance with the Passenger Ticket Contract governing passage on the applicable riverboat or cruise ship. See your Passenger Ticket Contract for specific details.

In addition to the terms and conditions stated in this Tour Participation Agreement for Rail, River Cruises, and Small Ship tours, you will be bound by all of the terms and conditions of the applicable Passenger Ticket Contract, copies of which will be provided to you prior to tour departure.

Vantage Travel Protection Plan
You may wish to protect your investment with the purchase of our optional Full-Value Travel Protection Plan — one of the most comprehensive benefit plans available anywhere. Please see the rates and a brief description of the plan offered below.

Protect the Full Value of Your Investment
You can feel confident that with the Vantage Travel Protection Plan, the full value of your investment is protected. Now that’s peace of mind!

If you must cancel your Vantage trip prior to departure
If you purchase Vantage’s Full-Value Travel Protection Plan and must cancel your trip before your scheduled departure date for 1) a covered reason under the Trip Cancellation Benefit, you will be reimbursed by check for the unused nonrefundable prepaid expenses for travel arrangements (the balance of the refund, if applicable, will be made either by check or credit card credit); or 2) for any reason under the Cancel for Any Reason Waiver, you will receive a Vantage Travel Certificate for the cancellation penalty amount (the balance of the refund, if applicable, will be made either by check or credit card credit). Cancel for any reason and your trip is covered by cash or travel credits.

Please note that the Vantage Travel Pre-Departure Cancellation Waiver does not cover penalties associated with air or other travel arrangements not directly provided by Vantage. Vantage Travel Certificates are nontransferable and nonrefundable, are valid for travel up to one year from the date of issuance, but not to exceed 15 months after the date of trip cancellation, and may not be redeemed for cash. Travel Certificates may not be used to purchase the Vantage Travel Protection Plan. Travel Certificates retain the original date of issue when applied to a new trip and you have to cancel. The SmartPay Discount Plan is not available on any portion of a trip paid for with Vantage Travel Certificates. For more details, please ask your Vantage travel consultant or visit online at www.vantagetravel.com/vantagevalue/waystosave/TravelProtection.aspx.

During your tour: If something unexpected happens on tour — there is coverage for that, too! You’re covered for most medical expenses even overseas, where Medicare does not cover you.

Conditions & Limitations: All Travel Protection Plan fees are nonrefundable. Travel Protection Plan payment rates are subject to change. Certain exclusions and limitations apply to each of the Travel Protection Plan benefits. Exclusions and limitations apply to the Travel Arrangement Protection and Travel Insurance Benefits, all of which are detailed in the Travel Protection Plan. The Plan will be sent to you after you make your reservation and will be available to you upon request at any time prior to your purchase. For example, coverage does not apply to: any sickness or condition of the traveler, a traveling companion, family member, or business partner that existed during the 60 days prior to the effective date (this exclusion is waived if payment for this plan is received within 14 days of the initial deposit/payment for your trip), suicide, normal pregnancy, war or any act of war, or mental or nervous disorders unless hospitalized. Other covered reasons, as defined, include the following events or their consequences: cancellation or interruption of your trip due to inclement weather; unannounced strike; mechanical breakdown that causes complete cessation of services of your common carrier for at least 12 consecutive hours; a documented traffic accident while en route to departure; being hijacked or quarantined; jury duty; destruction of your home or destination by fire, flood, burglary, or natural disaster; being called to the emergency service of government to provide aid or relief in the event of a natural disaster; a documented theft of passports or visas; a transfer of employment of 250 miles or more; or revocation of military leave due to war.

This is only a brief description of the plan. For complete details, you should review the Travel Protection Plan at www.tripmate.com and enter plan number F427V. Please Note: This section does not constitute or form any part of the Travel Protection Plan.

The Travel Insurance Benefits of this plan (and for New York residents only, the Travel Arrangement Protection Benefits) are underwritten by United States Fire Insurance Company, 5 Christopher Way, Eatontown, NJ 07724.
